Maine Revenue Services has been in the process of moving from paper tax return filing into electronic filing and payments for a number of years. Electronic filing is required for most major tax types. The change to electronic filing has saved both taxpayers and Maine Revenue Services time and money. However, at this point, all Motor Fuel Tax returns and schedules are still filed on paper. Maine Revenue Services is announcing a change to motor fuel tax filing for the February 2012 tax period.

Beginning with the February 2012 period, all Motor Fuel Tax Filers will be required to file the attached schedules electronically. The requirement for electronic filing only applies to the schedules at this time. The Gasoline Distributors' returns, as well as the Special Fuel Suppliers' returns will still be filed on paper. The schedules are already online and can be found at <http://maine.gov/revenue/fueltax/GasDistributor.htm> for Gas Distributor and at <http://maine.gov/revenue/fueltax/Special.htm> for Special Fuel Supplier. For those unable to use Excel, the schedules can be submitted in a comma delimited format. All schedules should be sent to Fuel.Tax@maine.gov. Please call Maine Revenue Services at 624-9609 with any questions. Thank you for your cooperation as we seek to modernize the motor fuel tax filing in Maine.
